MESSAGE FROM THE CHAPTER EXECUTIVE
Brandy Johnson, CAE

I hope this newsletter finds you and your family healthy and safe. During these challenging times, I want you to know that myself, your leadership, and FPA national are here to support you.

FPA offers a monthly payment plan and membership extensions for current FPA members experiencing economic hardship. If you are having trouble affording your membership dues, and would like to switch to monthly payments or request a hardship extension, please contact the FPA Member Engagement Team at MemberServices@OneFPA.org or via phone at (800) 322-4237.

We have created a COVID-19 resource page on the chapter website, which includes helpful articles, webinars, and other resources from our chapter partners and other sources.

A LinkedIn group for members has been established as a value-add resource to support you and foster collaboration during these unusual circumstances. You can join this group at: https://www.linkedin.com/groups/12398567/.

We look forward to the day we can meet in person again! The March meeting has been rescheduled for September 16th with the same agenda. Our May Ethics meeting will now be held virtually, see page six for additional information.

Stay well and please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Best regards,
Brandy Johnson, CAE

The FPA NexGen community is your connection to more than 2,500 like-minded new professionals who are ready to share their experiences and further the future of the financial planning profession. NexGen members are individuals who are in their first eight years in their financial planning career or studying to become a financial planner.

NexGen strives to provide members with a network that serves to educate, promote, and integrate the next generation of CFP® professionals. NexGen enacts this directive through the following service lines:

- Community: Foster inclusive communities dedicated to the development of the next generation of CFP® professionals.
- Education: Provide high-quality content about the practice, business, and profession of financial planning.
- Career success: Promote the growth and quality of the next generation of CFP® professionals’ careers.
- Advocacy: Promote FPA and CFP® professionals as the credible voice in financial planning.

We believe these service lines support the next generation of CFP® professionals and will help elevate our profession.

Want to get involved with the NexGen community here in Kansas City? We’re always looking for new members, whether you’re studying to become a financial planner, have been in a planning role for a few years, or are interested in a career in financial planning. We host monthly events, which you can find at: https://fpakc.org/EventCalendar

If you have any questions about NexGen, or know of someone who may enjoy getting involved, please e-mail me!

ETHICS CHAPTER MEETING

ETHICS 2020
May 20, 2020
3:00-5:00 p.m.

This meeting will be held virtually. A link will be sent to registrants 24 hours in advance. Attendees will also be asked to complete an affidavitt following the meeting for confirmation of attendance and paid registration.

L. Ann Coulson, Ph.D., CFP®
Kansas State University

Dr. Coulson received her B.S. from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1974. She spent the next eight years working for utility companies in Arkansas and Missouri providing public relations and education. She completed her M.S. in Operations Management from the University of Arkansas in 1980 and her Ph.D. in Human Environmental Sciences (Family & Consumer Economics) from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1988. She completed the requirements for the CFP® certification in 1991.

From 1987 until 1996, Dr. Coulson taught at Kansas State University where she spearheaded the CFP® registered undergraduate program at Kansas State University. While at K-State she won the Conoco Undergraduate Teaching Award. She moved to Chicago in 1995. While in Chicago, Dr. Coulson served as the Director of the Institute for Personal Finance, an educational institution under the auspices of the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE). The purpose of the institute was to educate financial and housing counselors.

In 2001, Dr. Coulson and her family returned to Kansas where she opened a financial planning firm and began teaching online graduate level classes in financial planning for K-State. She has mentored more than 30 cohorts of students through K-State’s CFP Board registered graduate certificate program. She returned full-time to the Manhattan campus in 2010 where she taught undergraduate and graduate students and also served as the academic advisor. In 2017, she moved to Ste. Genevieve, MO where she continues to teach online graduate level courses in financial planning for K-State.

“We saved thousands of dollars on a plan that’s almost the same as our old one. I was surprised by how easy the process was. Ryan Insurance took care of all the setup and answered my questions right away. I’ve already recommended them to a colleague at another firm.”

—Christine Damico, Director of Human Capital

† Due to individual state regulations, plans not yet available in DE, HI, MT, NC, NH, NY, and DC.

* National General Benefits Solutions, incorporated in 1965, focuses on providing small- and mid-sized employers with benefits options previously only available to large employers — helping employers lower costs while providing quality benefits to their employees. Rated A- (Excellent) by A.M. Best.

 Potential savings based on standard level premium self-funded plan rates compared to similar ACA rated products.
